1.7. Adult Games (USYSA Rule 208)

1.7.1. A youth player may play an unlimited number of adult games without losing his or her youth eligibility. The youth player must notify his or her youth coach or other authorized team official of the player's intention to play adult games. The youth player shall request, in writing, (1) eligibility clearance from Cal South and (2) permission from the appropriate Adult State Association (CSA for Southern California). When the clearance and permission have been granted, CSA-S has sole discretion in permitting the youth player to play adult games and is responsible for establishing the procedures under which the youth player will be allowed to play. In the event of a conflict between an adult game and a youth game, the youth game shall take precedence. A youth player who is required to sign an adult form shall retain youth eligibility. (Amended May 13, 2000) 1.7.2. Eligibility clearance procedures and forms shall be incorporated into the Cal South Manual of Operations and shall be supplied to any affiliated player or administrator. 1.7.3. Cal South Insurance will not cover a player involved in adult play. 1.7.4. A youth team with the written permission and mutual consent of both Cal South and the Adult State Association (CSA) may play in an adult-approved league and not lose its youth eligibility to compete in the U.S. Youth Soccer National Championships competitions. If the youth team's players are required to sign an adult form, the team shall retain its youth eligibility. (Added May 13, 2000) 1.7.5. The youth team playing in an adult approved league will be required to play under the rules of Cal South concerning registration, roster rules, transfer rules, and other rules as Cal South may apply. Whether participation in any adult league shall qualify a youth team for the U.S. Youth Soccer National Championships competitions shall be determined by Cal South. (Added May 13, 2000)

Section 4. Youth-Adult Relationship

A youth player may play an unlimited number of adult games without losing his or her youth eligibility. The youth player must notify his or her youth coach or other authorized team official of the player's intention to play adult games. The youth player shall request, in writing (1) eligibility clearance from the Youth State Association through which the player is registered, and (2) permission from the appropriate Adult State Association or National or Regional Adult League in which the adult team upon which the player will be playing plays. When the clearance and permission have been granted, the Adult State Association or National or Regional Adult League, as the case may be, has sole discretion in permitting a youth player to play Adult games and will be responsible for establishing the procedure under which this will be implemented.
